

Meet Luce and Santino!

The name Luce means "light" in Italian. Luce the Jubilee mascot is also meant to bring light to young people.

She's wearing a yellow sailor's raincoat, to symbolize journeying through life's storms. The green sailboat logo on her vest is the official Jubilee logo. The iconic yellow of the raincoat recalls the color of the Vatican flag.

Her hair and eyes are blue, a color of hope. Shells glimmer in her eyes, recalling the scallop shell of the Camino de Santiago, an emblem of the pilgrimage journey.

She has a rosary around her neck (in the colors of the World Mission Rosary), to emphasize the need for a pilgrim to grow in prayer. She carries the traditional pilgrim's walking stick which symbolizes the pilgrimage toward eternity.

Luce is accompanied by her dog Santino, a sign of Divine Providence that assisted St. Rocco in times of extreme need and symbolizes his fidelity to God's calling. The dog also represents friendship.

Her boots are dirty, showing that she's been walking along the paths of life which can be a long and difficult journey.
