

HOLY CROSS

EMPOWERED

girls

Now is the time for girls
to find their voices,
to speak their minds,
to stand up for their beliefs,
to lead change in the world.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR GIRLS.

Our Mission

The Academy of the Holy Cross, a Catholic college preparatory school sponsored by the Sisters of the Holy Cross since 1868, is dedicated to educating young women in a Christ-centered community which values diversity. The Academy is committed to developing women of courage, compassion and scholarship who responsibly embrace the social, spiritual and intellectual challenges of the world.

I'm on the Kennedy Center stage before a crowd of 2,000,
body tensed, eyes closed,
heart pounding—not from fear,
but excitement.

I count the beat.

I open my eyes.

I play.

Our Girls Thrive. All of Them.

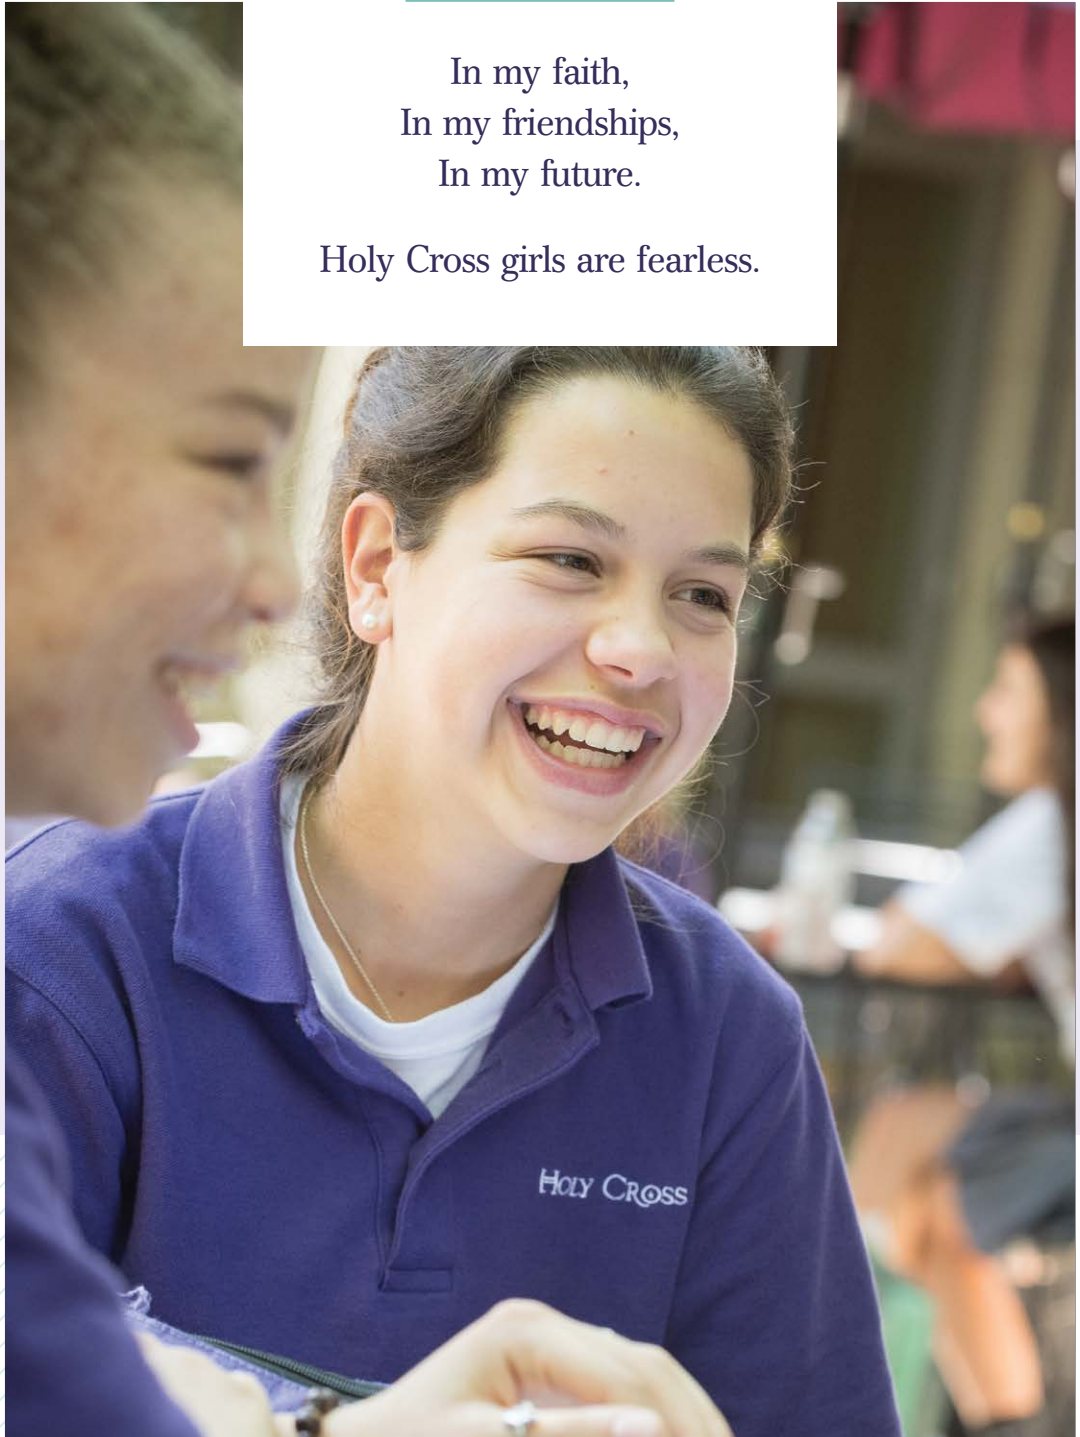

The dreamers and the doers,
The soccer stars and the campus ministers,
The innovators and creators,
The future engineers and passionate volunteers,

They all shine in Holy Cross purple.

FEARLESS

In my faith,
In my friendships,
In my future.

Holy Cross girls are fearless.

OUR GIRLS UNDERSTAND THAT SERVICE IS NOT JUST A GRADUATION REQUIREMENT, BUT A VITAL PART OF OUR CATHOLIC TRADITION.

They remain positive no matter the challenge, completing more than 350 hours of service during 2020's pandemic lockdown—sewing face masks, writing cards to older adults, using 3D printers to make face shields, and more.

They work with low-income children, adults at a nursing home and individuals with physical disabilities during the Urban Challenge Immersion service trip in Camden, New Jersey.

They raise money to fight hunger through our Empty Bowls event, and donate to the I Support the Girls charity.

GIRLS HERE FLEX THEIR FAITH AND STRENGTHEN THE BONDS THEY SHARE WITH FRIENDS.

They visit the chapel before school for a moment of prayerful contemplation.

They lead their peers in guided meditation during lunch.

They share joyful songs and prayers of encouragement during Praise and Worship in the chapel.

EMPOWERED GIRLS DEFY EXPECTATIONS.

They don't wait for opportunity.
They create it.

They don't accept common standards. They tailor their learning to their own interests.

They don't just memorize content.
They seek solutions and interact with difficult issues.

They reject typical—and celebrate girls like you.

They don't wait
for opportunity.

They create it.

They don't accept common standards.

They tailor their learning to their own interests.

Our challenging, college prep curriculum includes 35 additional online courses, such as AP Music Theory,

Girl Power

Compete alongside girls who know that team comes first, success starts within and grass stains match perfectly with lavender.

- Over the last eight years, our volleyball team has won six Washington Catholic Athletic Conference championships and has reached the finals in every season.
- Two-sport athlete Anna Avila '22 finished first among all women in USA Triathlon's 2018 Maryland High School State Championship race.
- Two Class of 2020 graduates are competing in volleyball and lacrosse at the United States Military Academy at West Point.

One step. One of hundreds of thousands I've taken up this familiar hill. I fight through gravity, heat and exhaustion.

But my stride is faster.

My will is stronger.

My team
is louder.

So I give my all in this and every step.

Shelby Wilson '20 established the No Place for Hate program at Holy Cross and organized discussions within our community about kindness, by-standing, bullying and respect.

Two Holy Cross alumnae, Dominica Groom Williams '00 and Suzy Menser '00, have been recognized in The Daily Record's

"Top 100 Women in Maryland."

Dominica serves as vice president of inclusion, diversity and community engagement at Freddie Mac and her outreach efforts for underserved affinities have earned her recognition as one of Black Enterprises'

"Top Executives in Corporate Diversity."

Meanwhile, Suzy, a partner in the KPMG's Baltimore office, lends her financial expertise for not-for-profits and serves on the Baltimore Women's Advisory Board she founded.

Girls fill every leadership role at Holy Cross—from captains of sports teams to presidents of our 30-plus clubs.

On fall Saturdays, Samantha Miller '18 marches to her spot on the 30-yard line of one of the most iconic fields in college athletics, where she plays trumpet in the Band of the Fighting Irish at Notre Dame.

"[AT HOLY CROSS], I SAW FEMALE LEADERSHIP AS A NORM, AND MY ALL-GIRLS SCHOOL REINFORCED THE IDEA THAT WOMEN ARE AND WILL CONTINUE TO BE POWERFUL LEADERS."

Chi-Emeka Egwuagu '14 graduated from the College of William & Mary, where she was recently honored as a "Woman of William & Mary." She's currently studying at Columbia University Law School.
