Ms. Grant remembers when she was in high school, the Sisters taught students about the importance of social justice and invited them to volunteer in the field for one semester. Ms. Grant shares how she helped seniors in the parish and decorated the church for Christmas and Easter.

What are some ways you can serve your community? How can you help others?

"You have to keep focused on the Lord and what you are called to do, and don't let other people's actions dissuade you from living out your faith, increasing your faith, and treating each other as you'd like yourself to be treated."

How can you live out Ms. Grant's advice?

Write your ideas and/or draw a picture showing how you will follow Ms. Grant's advice.
