

Name:

Date:

(CS photo/Andrew Biraj)

BLACK CATHOLIC VOICES

Meet Sister Patricia Chappell, a Sister of Notre Dame de Namur, who served as President of the National Black Sisters' Conference and received that group's Harriet Tubman Award in recognition of her advocacy for Black people through her ministry.

2

Click here to watch
the interview

1

Throughout the interview, Sister Patricia Chappell talks about "systemic racism. Read the USCCB article on systemic racism. Then write a brief definition of "systemic racism."

3

During the interview, Sister Patricia Chappell discusses systemic racism and how it affects our community.

What was your biggest takeaway from the interview? What stories or words of advice were the most meaningful to you? Why?

4

What does Sister Patricia Chappell say we can do to keep our hope and faith during difficult times?

5

"And we have to, as Church, as people, we have to find a way to embrace that (teaching), and to acknowledge that sinfulness of systemic racism, but also to say that we are more than that. You know, we are made in the image and likeness of our good and gracious God, and that's how we should start acting and behaving.."

How can you live out Sister Patricia Chappell's advice?
